Our way of working:

We tailor workshops to meet the needs of your business or organization.

We have a bank of training modules, which we can draw on to tailor each workshop.

We offer a free 30-minute consultation to make sure the workshop content is tailored to your needs.

Our point of difference is:

We offer up-to-date information on China, its politics, trade and travel information.

Our workshops are very practical – e.g., useful apps to have on your mobile phone for travel in China.

We provide basic Mandarin Chinese language tutoring to help you to navigate China.

We explain Chinese business etiquette and ways of working to better equip you for business in China.

We believe that business etiquette and cultural awareness are just as important as language skills in China.
